SHOWDOWN IN LOBOTOWN

A cowboy wakes before the crack of dawn.
To complete plans for the day he has drawn.
He saddles up his mare
before the sunny glare.
A whole day's tasks he must perform under the hot sun's scorn.
He works and sweats in the desert hot sun looking forward to the night when he has time for fun.
Then his day is over and it is time to ride home.
He rides, clear headed, into the sunset
Knowing his daily tasks are done.
With each new sun there comes a new day, another day,
and another chance—
To improve on the work that has already been done.

THE OMEN

Another season center on this place.
Like memory the blood congeals in it;
Like memory the sun recedes in time
Into the hazy, southern distance.

A vagrant heat hangs on the dark river,
And shadows turn like smoke. An owl ascends
Among the branches, clattering, remote
Within its motion, intricate with age.
N. Scott Monaday

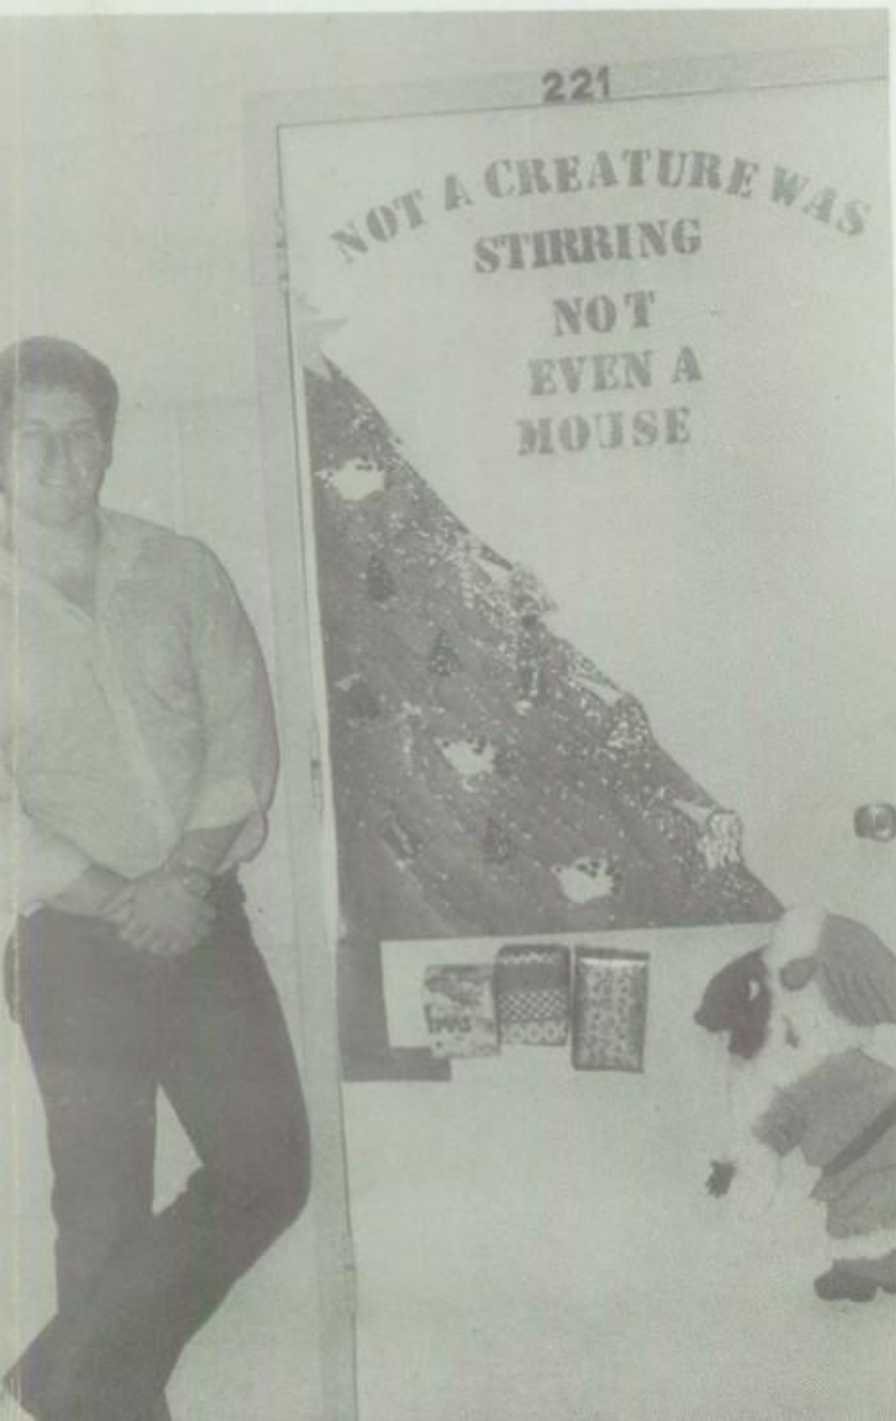

Like the twilight in the road up ahead, they don't see just where we're goin' and all the secrets in the universe, whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go and take us up, always up.
